Rally report

CR3: GPMC, 'Daffodil Rally', 31 March

For the first time in a while we returned on the championship trail to Grantham last month, where Peter Blowers and his team organised their annual Daffodil Rally. Dave Williams brought out his Renault Clio V6 (a brave man!) amongst the field of 10 who had to deal with numbered but mixed-up tulips all night (hence the event name apparently...?!). These were given to each crew at the start (in Grantham town centre) and after a brief run out we got the first number to begin from at TC1. This continued ad infinitum for the whole 50 miles (interestingly timed at 1h 20 mins...) with various quirks like 'proceed from TC10 to TC8' to keep us on our toes. All in all a very enjoyable thrash, lacking only in a more effective tie-breaker than the car you were lucky (or otherwise) to turn up in. Thanks to all concerned.
